

Farewell Advice

Shaykh Al-Hadith Mawlana Fazlur Rahman Sahib Azami hafizahullah mentioned during his farewell advice on Sunday 21 Ramadhan 1437 corresponding to 26 June 2016, after Fajr Salaah to participants at Jame Masjid, Batley, UK, the following Hadith which is recorded by both Imam Bukhari and Imam Muslim in their books, advising that this zikr should be recited daily and also widely publicised due to its authenticity and virtues.

Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrates that the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم said: “Whoever says a hundred times during the day,

سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَبِحَمْدِهِ

‘SubhanAllahi wa biHamdihi [Glory be to Allah and Praise Him]

His sins are wiped away, even if they are like the foam of the sea.”

[Sahih al-Bukhari; #7:168, Sahih Muslim; #4:2071]
